

Here is a table of transcripts of the responses to the Church Fenton Local Green Spaces Questionnaire
The ID corresponds to the area described and is used a key to the maps.

Local Green Space Status Codes

a = Beauty

b = Historic Significance

c = Recreational Value

d = Tranquility

e = Richness of Wildlife

Area	Why Special?	Use	LGS Status Code	ID (Area)	ID (Line)
footpath from the end of Sandwath Lane towards Tank House	lovely open views, playground for swallows, leads to a beautiful wood	Dog walking, horse riding, running, walking	a		24
Fields behind Church	wonderful views and historical setting for the church	Walking/farming	a,b	1
Land south to St Mary's Church	Beauty - bench on lockton court to enjoy views, Historic Significance - Church + link to old vicarage, Recreational value - the most extensively used footpath, Tranquility - quiet walks in the countryside enjoying the rural nature of the village.	Schools to walk to "forest school" - dog walkers - children for nature walks - elderly/adult for health	a,b,c,d	2
Church Fields Public Footpath	Beautiful views of church, wildlife - peaceful	Walking	a,b,c,d		25

St Mary's Church environs - footpaths and adjacent countryside	The setting of the church is extremely beautiful & makes the perfect backdrop to this lovely 13th century building. It has a timeless quality that is restful and ideal for relaxation, tranquility and rejuvenation.	Walking, sitting, taking in the views/contemplation/farming	a,b,c,d	3
Strategic gap between two halves of the village	View between 2 halves of the village has remained unchanged for centuries and is therefore priceless. Parks used for recreation. Peaceful place to enjoy the historic buildings of the village.	Walking/playing/sitting/contemplation/farming	a,b,c,d	4
Pond - Sandwath Lane	Wildlife walks/ beautiful sunsets	Fishing, walks to scathingwell and north milford	a,c	5
Northfield Lane Public Footpath	So many locals use it. Beautiful views, wildlife - peaceful	Walking/riding	a,c		26
Sandwath Lane Bridleway continuing to grassy and wooded track linking to Scarthingwell	Bridle path leads on to many walks around the village. It is both varied, picturesque, tranquil and accessible. It links other paths.	Walking/cycling/ horse riding	a,c,d		27
Fenton trans leading into carr dyke	Flood zone 2 links up with flood zone 3 north of village and ultimately Selby dam stops housing and roads flooding	Dog walking, links other green space, wildlife requiring marshland; yellow flag iris, rabbits, partridges, flood plain especial when high rainfall, flash flooding allows run-off	a,c,d,e	6
Hedgerows alongside cricket field on busk lane	Wildlife/flowers, recreation - great for foraging	Boundaries	a,c,e	7
Hedgerows alongside airfield on busk lane	Wildlife/flowers, recreation - great for foraging	Boundaries	a,c,e	8

Historic Fenton Trans - wild areas between Northfield Lane and Busk Lane	Excellent for wildlife, beauty and tranquility	Farming, walking, unused land	a,d,e	9
Field opposite Northfield Terrace	Changes with different seasons and is the only bit of land which is easily visible as you walk through the village, deer frequently seen in the field	Farming	a,e	10
Woodland to the East of Northfield Lane	Wildlife Habitat	Wildlife	a,e	11
Agricultural Land and Orchard North of Chapel Close	Productive, open space	Orchard/farming	b	12
Area around St. Marys Church	Tranquil, historic, beautiful, wildlife	Church /graveyard walks	b,c	13
main street - bend in road before northfield terrace	Safe recreation area for all ages but mainly used by children and young people	Children's play area and skate park – very well used	c	14
Nanny Lane to Broad lane	Wildlife - Owls, open space, tranquil, beautiful	Farming	c
Land behind village hall, Main Street to Lockton Court	Open space, walks, tranquil. Keeps village as linear village	Farming/?	c	15
Playground/Skatepark off Main Street	Well used park where children of all ages can come and play, run around and get exercise	play/sport/socialising	c	16
Northfield Lane and public right of way to former RAF housing	Significant recreational value as one of the most well used routes in the parish.	public ROW and agricultural access	c		28
Play park (main street)	excellent space for children of the village and well used	public space - playing, socialising, recreation	c	17
Playground off main street	open space for children to play safely	playground	c	18
Footpath from St Marys to Nanny Lane	Open space, walk, tranquil, wildlife	Walks/farming	c,d		29

Allotments off Busk Lane/Brackenhill	Relaxation	Growing produce	c,d	19
Old tennis court behind old school house/ oakwood close	open space - wild flowers/birds/butterflies/trees/pond	Open space - dog walking play area	c,e	20
Ponds between C/F & Ull. - near windmill	Toads cross road to breed in March	Farming/sheep grazing	e	21
Parsons Pond off Church Street behind Oakwood Close	Newts, Wildlife, trees, birds	Open space	e	22
Drainage ditches surrounding fields and properties	Prevents flooding of land around village - wildlife habitat	Drainage	e		30
Parsons Pond	Wonderful wildlife haven (so many birds)	Private land	e	23

Document created by Dominic Hinchley, Church Fenton Resident and member of working group
Questionnaire May/June 2017 & summary above created December 2017